ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

CHARLESTON -- Eastern Illinois University's chapter of Alpha Sigma Lambda (ASL) inducted new members May 15 during the School of Adult and Continuing Education's eighth annual Adult Student Recognition Ceremony.

ASL is dedicated to the advancement of scholarship and recognizes high scholastic achievement in an adult student's academic career.

Through leadership born of effort, both scholastically and fraternally, ASL inspires its candidates to give of their strengths to their fellow students and communities through their academic achievements.

Eastern, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 1994-95, is a comprehensive university with more than 10,500 students and 46 undergraduate and 27 graduate degree programs. It is a teaching institution which prides itself on the quality and affordability of its undergraduate program.

The following is a list of students inducted into ASL:

Annapolis--Beverly Artzberger, spouse of Thomas R. Artzberger of
